6. Citizen appearances other than agenda items listed. None

A. Speed bumps/general traffic/speeding concerns on Garfield Ave., Susan Becker.

Susan Becker spoke about the traffic on Garfield Street and the number of cars that use Garfield to get to the park and the number of kids walking/biking to park and how the traffic is speeding down the road and would like the city to consider portable speed bumps as she feels adding stop signs will not help with the issue. Chief Reese is in favor of the portable speed bumps, would have to communicate with DPW as they would be the ones in charge of placing and removing them. Tim Main also spoke about the speed of the vehicles going down Garfield Street. Corridon asked about cameras being put up and the cost of them and Chief Reese explained that Wisconsin has a state law that we cannot give citations from cameras. Susan Becker asked about getting a petition together and the committee and Chief Reese thought it would a good idea to have the neighborhoods input for the council. Council made a motion to move this request to Common Council in September to give Susan Becker enough time to do the petition. Motion passed 3-0 to take it to Common Council.

7. Old Business.

Corridon amended the agenda to see if there was any new information on the cost of the police for the 4th of July and Chief Reese is still working on getting these numbers with the help of Melanie at city hall. Will be back on the agenda in September.
