Sgt. Reilly reported on Pete's Inn Bar police and EMS call log concerns. The call log focused on 154 calls which began March 26, 2022 to September 24, 2024. Reilly and Lieutenant Jones explained Pete's calls were exceptionally higher than any other business in town and with more serious circumstances including mutual aide requests to Rock County Sheriff's Office. Officers have requested video footage from Pete's Inn staff, and the requests have not been fulfilled. Since the reopening of Pete's and the change of agent, the establishment's most notable calls have included 14 disorderly conduct, 6 battery, 2 resisting/obstruction, and 1 probation violations. Mutual aid details include 4 EMS calls, 2 Fire Department, 7 Rock County Sheriff's Office.

Stuart inquired on staff time and asked where the disconnect is since there have been prior conversations between Chief Reese and the agent/owner.

Geoffrion sought clarification about the security camera footage, specifically if they cannot or will not give the police footage. Geoffrion also asked if they had been told about consequences at these past meetings.

Lewis asked if they could be denied licensing of the business license at renewal.

Chief Kleisch shared similar safety concerns for EMT and police staff when they are on calls to Pete's Inn.

Jason Sergeant inquired about the process of revocation of a license.

City Clerk Leah Hurtley referred to Wi §125.12(2) Revocations, Suspensions, refusals to issue or renew.

The committee agreed to move forward by turning in a formal letter to Clerk Hurtley to start the process of suspension/revocation.
