There was discussion about the possibility of signage for the lake that people are assuming their own risk, as well as the sport court at Larson Acres Park.

9. Aquatic Center:

A. Utilities Report: There was discussion about the lowness of the bill, causing to wonder if the numbers reflect the irrigation instead of the pool. Kriebs had forgotten about a second water meter. It could also be due to the pool being filled with water prior to June 1st, as it has a 400,000 gallons of water.
