8. New Business

A. Motion to Recommend to Common Council Resolution 2025-12 Amending the 2025 Budget and CIP by Corridon, seconded by Lathrop. Motion passed 3-0.

Sergeant explained the approval process from the PSC for borrowing. This amendment is to document where the money is going.

B. Motion to Recommend to Common Council Approval of employment Contract with Ian Reilly by Lathrop, seconded by Corridon. Motion passed 3-0.

There was discussion about some of the changes and updates made from the previous Lieutenant position.

C. First Quarter Treasurer's Report: Roberts covered some key items that are high and the journal entries that are needed to correct the general ledger variances.

D. Discussion and Motion to Recommend to Common Council Approval of Public Works Seasonal Laborer – Light Duty position description by Corridon, seconded by Lathrop. Motion passed 3-0.

Sergeant explained that the goal of this position would be to be able to hire someone at the age of 16 that could be trained and could be able to rehire the following years as they would already be trained instead of losing them after a single year due to school. The position would be primarily to assist with the demands of the landscaping in the parks.

9. City Administrator/Finance Director Report: Sergeant gave some updates on the hailstorm damage.

- A. Alder Lathrop Discussion of Financial Analysis: Lathrop put together an analysis of other communities that are of similar sizes, to compare to Evansville per capita.
